MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS REPORT

1. INDUSTRY STRUCTURE AND DEVELOPMENT:

In today's Real Estate market, a strategic approach and understanding of client requirement is vital. The country has successfully overcome the effect of the global economic slowdown and the GDP is expected to grow at 8.5% during fiscal 2010-11, plus or minus 0.25%, which is much higher than most countries in the world. The Indian Government has also been proactive in announcing the relevant stimulus package to boost demand and cope with unemployment and poverty. At the same time it has also taken steps to increase money in the hands of consumer by relaxing individual income tax slab rates significantly and slashed surcharge for Corporates.

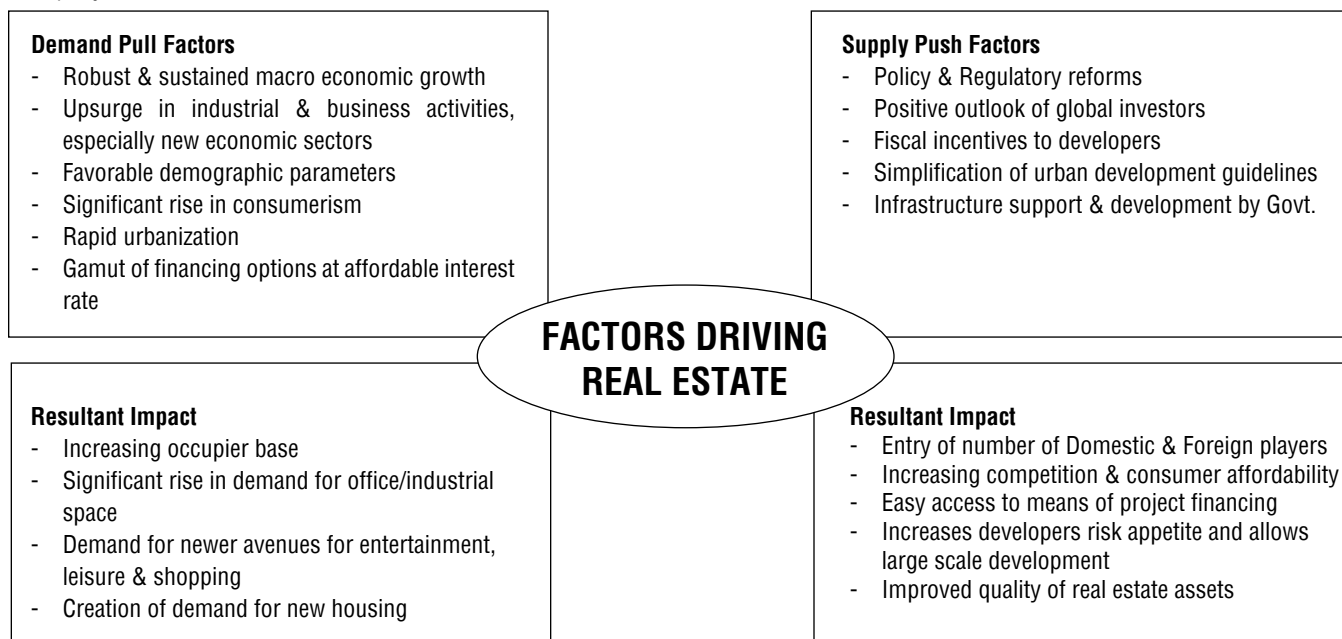

Strong economic growth is expected to ride on the back of domestic demand rather than overseas business. The service sector is yet again expected to witness significantly higher growth than the manufacturing sector. This is primarily because the fundamentals of the economy remain strong and stable including favorable demographics, rapid urbanization and rising literacy levels.

The Indian real estate sector plays a significant role in the country's economy. The real estate sector is second only to agriculture in terms of employment generation and contributes heavily towards the gross domestic product (GDP). According to industry players, housing accounts for 5 % of GDP. In the next five years, this contribution to the GDP is expected to rise to 6 %.

Industry experts believe that the worst is behind them and the real estate space is on a slow but definite path of recovery. Properties which had reach astronomical prices now stand corrected and are available at better valuations and at more affordable prices thereby spurring demand.

The Company is currently handling projects of 6.61 lacs sqft in the residential segment of Navi Mumbai real estate market.

Being a professionally managed company, we look into the intricacies of designing, developing and construction of each project with an eye to perfection. In the era of real estate boom, the key to excel is a skilled workforce. And we boast of top-notch professionals in all fields be it architecture & design, management, marketing or finance. Our efficient team of Engineers, Architects, Designers, Structural Consultants & Human Resource Personnel, leaves no stone unturned to infuse class and quality in our projects. With a Glorious Clientele, Network of Investors & Financers, Efficient Supply Chain and Banker Relations, we are set to achieve newer benchmarks in Real Estate industry. We carry forward our zeal for delivering maximum customer delight keenly project after project.

OPPORTUNITIES, THREATS AND RISK PERCEPTION:

The real estate market in India witnessed a stupendous growth over the past few years, with residential real estate prices had nearly doubled. Lower mortgage rates, easy availability of housing finance, better income and job prospects and decrease in household size have given a boost to the demand of residential properties in India. According to the Tenth Five Year Plan, there is a shortage of 22.4 million dwelling units. Thus, over the next 10 to 15 years, 80 to 90 million housing dwelling units will have to be constructed with a majority of them catering to middle- and lower-income groups. A surge in demand for office space in India is set to revolutionized the commercial property market by 2013, it is predicted.

The Company operates in a highly fragmented and competitive industry. The competition varies depending upon the size, nature and complexity of the project to be executed. Fluctuations in operating costs can often lead to spiraling costs and overshooting budgets. This can lead to delays in the completion of projects. Real estate companies constantly face the risk of injury or illness to the Company's or third parties' construction workers.

Residential

Rapid urbanization, increase in working age population and decreasing household size are some of the key growth drivers for the residential space. The rapid increase in capital values, rise in mortgage rates and sustained poor sentiment pertaining to employment scenario led to an abrupt decline in housing demand in FY10. However, despite the short term aberrations there is still a clear latent housing demand in the market at the right price.

Even after witnessing the high growth rate in capital values, about 50% of locations across major Indian cities remain affordable given the income levels of the population. These are mainly suburban locations that are witnessing an onslaught of construction activity in the office and retail sectors, thus creating a demand for residential properties. During 2009-10, some signs of mortgage rate softening were seen wherein major Indian banks announced new schemes to attract customers.

Retail

The soaring rentals of malls and main streets in major metropolitan cities have turned retailers cautious with many stalling their immediate expansion plans or altering their business strategy by entering value retailing, for instance. This movement is likely to open a plethora of opportunities for developers and investors alike, particularly in the Tier II and Tier III cities that offer quality space and affordable rentals for retailers with product offerings that are suited for consumers at these locations. The concept of specialized malls is also gaining popularity with auto malls, jewellery malls, furniture malls and electronics malls anticipated to be part of the sector in the future. Many developers are further setting up mixed-use projects offering hotels, amusement facilities and commercial space. Rising income levels and a changing outlook towards branded goods is expected to translate into higher demand for shopping mall space, fuelling strong growth in mall development activities. Even though mall development activity was initially restricted to a few major cities like Mumbai and Pune, it is now expected to extend to Navi Mumbai, thus resulting in increase in real estate activity in those areas.

Hospitality

Business in the hospitality industry, much like any other sector, is cyclical in nature. Any significant change in the economy, such as the slowdown witnessed in FY10, affects the sector resulting in lower occupancy levels, delays in upcoming projects and anticipated decrease in rentals. Despite the temporary slowdown that the Indian hospitality industry faced due to the global economic crisis, India is still one of the world's fastest growing hotel markets. With an overall increase in leisure and business travelers over the past few years, India's hospitality industry has attracted global attention. Hotels across all segments achieved healthy occupancy levels until end-2010. A buoyant domestic economy, the government's open sky policy, an overall real estate boom, initiatives to liberalize foreign investment and especially the Ministry of Tourism's (MoT) efforts to communicate the 'Incredible India' campaign together contributed to a robust demand for hospitality space in major cities across India.

2. YEAR GONE BY.....

Even in a year of tight credit and liquidity conditions, the Company took strategic initiatives to face the challenges and reiterated its leadership position in the industry.

Changing Macro Environment

During the FY10, events around the world and the regulations by RBI led to a situation of loose liquidity and easy credit availability for Indian corporate. At times when the economic environment was improving globally, real estate came to be seen as an enhancing sector with a high degree of profits and earnings. This was further aggravated by the steady interest rates, whereby the cost of finance for Indian companies was steady. The situation became better with buyer sentiments becoming strong on account of job certainties impacting their future income in the prevailing environment. This led the buyers to instantly decide for buying a house, which was coupled with an anticipation of increase in prices. Investing in property in such circumstances became easy for people. Moreover, MNCs as well as Indian Corporate explored their expansion plans, thereby impacting the demand for office and retail spaces. Due to the above reasons, the months post September 2009 witnessed increase in demand and high volumes of fresh sale and lease.

3. STRATEGY

In order to climate the tough economic environment over the last year, Arihant Superstructures Limited adopted and implemented a strategy which allowed it to be in a relatively comfortable liquidity position, whilst it tested the right market conditions where it could attract significantly larger number of end customers. Additionally, the Company continued its focus on all areas and maintained tight focus on cash flows to ensure that operating cash flows met all operating requirements, including finance charges.

Arihant will continue to focus on liquidity preservation and launch projects in line with market demand after adequate research of the same. Arihant plans to adopt the following steps as a part of its corporate strategy:

Rationalize construction

The focus of the Company is on timely execution and delivery of its projects to meet the timelines committed to its customers. It, thus, intends to prioritize its construction activity and construction spend with focus on conserving capital.

 Focus on core businesses going forward

During the year, Arihant focused on portfolio adjustments towards liquidity preservation and de-leveraging through unlocking value from nonstrategic assets or assets which do not have any short to medium term utilization. Going forward, Arihant intends to focus on its key business verticals – homes, office and hospitality.

The year 2009-10 started with carrying forward the success of mid-income homes launched in FY10. However, with the change in the overall economic environment, the sales saw a high post in mid 2009. SCHEDULE - XI

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNTS

A. Nature of Operations

M/s Arihant Superstructures Limited (the 'Company'), a public limited company, is engaged primarily in the business of Construction and Real Estate Development. The operations of the Company span all aspects of real estate development, from the identification and acquisition of land, to planning, execution, construction and marketing of projects.

B. Significant accounting policies:

1) Basis of preparation of financial statements:

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis and in accordance with applicable Accounting Standards notified by the Central Government of India, to the extent applicable and the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956.

2) Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affects the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosures of contingent liabilities on the date of financial statements and reported amounts of revenue and expenses for that year. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates.

3) Fixed assets:

Fixed Assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortisation. Cost includes original cost of acquisition, including incidental expenses related to such acquisition and installation.

4) Depreciation / amortization:

Depreciation on fixed assets has been provided on straight-line method (SLM) on pro-rata basis in the manner and at the rates specified in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.

Intangible Assets

Trade Mark and Software are amortised over a period of 5 years.

5) Investments:

- i) Long-term investments are valued at cost. Provision is made for diminution in the values when the decline is other than temporary.
- ii) Current investments are valued at lower of cost or market value determined on an individual investment basis.

6) Revenue Recognition:

The revenue / income from real estate sales is recognised on the transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyers and it is not unreasonable to expect ultimate collection and also when no significant uncertainty exists regarding the realization and amount of consideration.

However, if at the time of transfer substantial acts are yet to be performed under the contract, revenue is recognised on proportionate basis as the acts are progressively performed, i.e. on the percentage of completion basis.

Determination of revenues under the percentage of completion method necessarily involves making estimates by the Company. Some of the estimates amongst others are of a technical nature and these are related to the percentages of completion, costs till completion of the project / activity and the foreseeable losses if any. As the real estate projects necessarily extend beyond one year, revision in costs estimated during the course of the project on the basis of prevailing market conditions and variations in market dynamics are reflected in the accounting period in which the facts requiring the revision become known.

Revenue in respect of other income is recognized when no significant uncertainty as to its determination or realization exists.

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholders' rights to receive payment have been established.

7) Transaction in foreign currencies:

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of such transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities as at the Balance Sheet date are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing at the date of the Balance Sheet. Gains and losses arising on account of differences in foreign exchange rates on settlement/translation of monetary assets and liabilities are recognized in the profit and loss account. Non-monetary foreign currency items are carried at cost.

8) Retirement benefits:

The Company contributes to Employee's Provident Fund (a defined contribution plan) towards post employment benefits, which is administered by the respective Government authorities and the Company has no further obligation beyond making its contribution.

9) Accounting for taxes on income:

- i) Provision for income tax is made on the basis of the estimated taxable income for the accounting year in accordance with the Income-Tax Act, 1961.
- ii) The deferred tax for timing differences between the book profits and tax profits for the year is accounted for using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted as of the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets arising from timing differences are recognised to the extent there is a virtual certainty that these would be realised in future and are reviewed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each balance sheet date.

10) Borrowing costs:

Borrowing costs attributable to the acquisition and construction of qualifying assets upto the date of such acquisition or construction are capitalised as part of the cost of respective assets. Other borrowing costs are charged to profit and loss account in the period in which they are incurred.

11) Impairment of assets:

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the management estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the profit and loss account. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciated historical cost.

12) Provisions and contingent liabilities:

The Company creates a provision when there is a present obligation as result of a past event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, requires an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNTS

A. Nature of Operations

M/s. Arihant Abode Limited has been incorporated as a Company vide Reg. No. 197090 under Companies Act, 1956 w.e.f. 17th November, 2009

M/s Arihant Abode Limited (the 'Company'), a public limited company, is engaged primarily in the business of Construction and Real Estate Development. The operations of the Company span all aspects of real estate development, from the identification and acquisition of land, to planning, execution, construction and marketing of projects.

B. Significant accounting policies:

1) Basis of preparation of financial statements:

The financial statements are prepared under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis and in accordance with applicable Accounting Standards notified by the Central Government of India, to the extent applicable and the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956.

2) Use of estimates:

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affects the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosures of contingent liabilities on the date of financial statements and reported amounts of revenue and expenses for that year. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates.

3) Fixed assets:

Fixed Assets are to be stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortisation. Cost includes original cost of acquisition, including incidental expenses related to such acquisition and installation. Company does not hold any Fixed Asset as on 31.03.2010.

4) Investments:

- i) Long-term investments are valued at cost. Provision is made for diminution in the values when the decline is other than temporary.
- ii) Current investments are valued at lower of cost or market value determined on an individual investment basis.

5) Revenue Recognition:

The revenue / income from real estate sales is recognised on the transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyers and it is not unreasonable to expect ultimate collection and also when no significant uncertainty exists regarding the realization and amount of consideration.

However, if at the time of transfer substantial acts are yet to be performed under the contract, revenue is recognised on proportionate basis as the acts are progressively performed, i.e. on the percentage of completion basis.

Determination of revenues under the percentage of completion method necessarily involves making estimates by the Company. Some of the estimates amongst others are of a technical nature and these are related to the percentages of completion, costs till completion of the project / activity and the foreseeable losses if any. As the real estate projects necessarily extend beyond one year, revision in costs estimated during the course of the project on the basis of prevailing market conditions and variations in market dynamics are reflected in the accounting period in which the facts requiring the revision become known.

Revenue in respect of other income is recognized when no significant uncertainty as to its determination or realization exists.

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholders' rights to receive payment have been established.

6) Transaction in foreign currencies:

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of such transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities as at the Balance Sheet date are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing at the date of the Balance Sheet. Gains and losses arising on account of differences in foreign exchange rates on settlement/translation of monetary assets and liabilities are recognized in the profit and loss account. Non-monetary foreign currency items are carried at cost.

7) Accounting for taxes on income:

- i) Provision for income tax is made on the basis of the estimated taxable income for the accounting year in accordance with the Income-Tax Act, 1961.
- ii) The deferred tax for timing differences between the book profits and tax profits for the year is accounted for using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted as of the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets arising from timing differences are recognised to the extent there is a virtual certainty that these would be realised in future and are reviewed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each balance sheet date.

8) Borrowing costs:

Borrowing costs attributable to the acquisition and construction of qualifying assets upto the date of such acquisition or construction are capitalised as part of the cost of respective assets. Other borrowing costs are charged to profit and loss account in the period in which they are incurred.

9) Impairment of assets:

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the management estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the profit and loss account. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciated historical cost.

10) Provisions and contingent liabilities:

The Company creates a provision when there is a present obligation as result of a past event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, requires an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Fixed Assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortisation. Cost includes original cost of acquisition, including incidental expenses related to such acquisition and installation.

4) Depreciation / amortization:

Depreciation has not been provided as the Assets was purchased at the year end, and has not been put to use during the year.

5) Investments:

- i) Long-term investments are valued at cost. Provision is made for diminution in the values when the decline is other than temporary.
- ii) Current investments are valued at lower of cost or market value determined on an individual investment basis.

6) Revenue Recognition:

The revenue / income from real estate sales is recognised on the transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyers and it is not unreasonable to expect ultimate collection and also when no significant uncertainty exists regarding the realization and amount of consideration.

However, if at the time of transfer substantial acts are yet to be performed under the contract, revenue is recognised on proportionate basis as the acts are progressively performed, i.e. on the percentage of completion basis.

Determination of revenues under the percentage of completion method necessarily involves making estimates by the Company. Some of the estimates amongst others are of a technical nature and these are related to the percentages of completion, costs till completion of the project / activity and the foreseeable losses if any. As the real estate projects necessarily extend beyond one year, revision in costs estimated during the course of the project on the basis of prevailing market conditions and variations in market dynamics are reflected in the accounting period in which the facts requiring the revision become known.

Revenue in respect of other income is recognized when no significant uncertainty as to its determination or realization exists.

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholders' rights to receive payment have been established.

7) Transaction in foreign currencies:

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of such transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities as at the Balance Sheet date are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing at the date of the Balance Sheet. Gains and losses arising on account of differences in foreign exchange rates on settlement/translation of monetary assets and liabilities are recognized in the profit and loss account. Non-monetary foreign currency items are carried at cost.

8) Accounting for taxes on income:

- i) Provision for income tax is made on the basis of the estimated taxable income for the accounting year in accordance with the Income-Tax Act, 1961.
- ii) The deferred tax for timing differences between the book profits and tax profits for the year is accounted for using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted as of the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets arising from timing differences are recognised to the extent there is a virtual certainty that these would be realised in future and are reviewed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each balance sheet date.

9) Borrowing costs:

Borrowing costs attributable to the acquisition and construction of qualifying assets upto the date of such acquisition or construction are capitalised as part of the cost of respective assets. Other borrowing costs are charged to profit and loss account in the period in which they are incurred.

10) Impairment of assets:

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the management estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the profit and loss account. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciated historical cost.

11) Provisions and contingent liabilities:

The Company creates a provision when there is a present obligation as result of a past event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, requires an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

SCHEDULE – XI

SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNTS

A. Nature of Operations

M/s Arihant Superstructures Limited (the 'Company'), a public limited company, together with its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the 'Group') is engaged primarily in the business of Construction and Real Estate Development. The operations of the Group span all aspects of real estate development, from the identification and acquisition of land, to planning, execution, construction and marketing of projects.

B. Significant accounting policies:

1) Basis of preparation of consolidated financial statements:

The Consolidated Financial Statements are prepared under the historical cost convention on an accrual basis and in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP) in India and comply with the Accounting Standard (AS)-21 'Consolidated Financial Statements' notified under the Companies (Accounting Standard) Rule 2006. The consolidated financial statements are presented in Indian rupees.

2) Principles of consolidation:

- a) The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of Arihant Superstructures Limited, the parent company (hereinafter referred to as the 'Company') and its subsidiaries (collectively referred to as the 'Group').

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the following basis:

- i) Consolidated financial statements normally include consolidated balance sheet, consolidated statement of profit & loss, consolidated statement of cash flows and notes to the consolidated financial statements and explanatory statements that form an integral part thereof. The consolidated financial statements are presented, to the extent possible, in the same format as that adopted by the parent for standalone financial statements.
 - ii) The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of the Company and all its subsidiaries, which are more than 50 per cent owned or controlled as at March 31, 2010.
 - iii) The financial statements of the parent company and the subsidiaries have been combined on a line by line basis by adding together the book values of like items of assets, liabilities, income and expenses after eliminating intra-group balances / transactions and resulting unrealised profits in full. The amounts shown in respect of reserves comprise the amount of the relevant reserves as per the balance sheet of the parent company and its share in the post acquisition increase in the relevant reserves of the subsidiaries.
- b) The excess of acquired portion of equity in subsidiaries over the cost of acquisition of investments in the subsidiaries is recognised in the financial statements as 'capital reserve'.
- c) Minority interest in the net assets of consolidated subsidiaries consists of:
- the amount of equity attributable to minorities at the date on which investment in subsidiary is made; and
 - the minorities' share of movements in equity since the date the parent and subsidiary relationship came into existence.
- d) The consolidated financial statements are prepared using uniform accounting policies for like transactions and other events in similar circumstances to the extent possible.

3) Use of estimates:

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affects the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and the disclosures of contingent liabilities on the date of consolidated financial statements and reported amounts of revenue and expenses for that year. Although these estimates are based upon management's best knowledge of current events and actions, actual results could differ from these estimates.

4) Fixed assets:

Fixed Assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and amortisation. Cost includes original cost of acquisition, including incidental expenses related to such acquisition and installation.

5) Depreciation / amortization:

Depreciation on fixed assets has been provided on straight-line method (SLM) on pro-rata basis in the manner and at the rates specified in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956.

Intangible Assets

Trade Mark and Software are amortised over a period of 5 years.

6) Investments:

i) Long-term investments are valued at cost. Provision is made for diminution in the values when the decline is other than temporary.

ii) Current investments are valued at lower of cost or market value determined on an individual investment basis.

7) Revenue Recognition:

The revenue / income from real estate sales is recognised on the transfer of all significant risks and rewards of ownership to the buyers and it is not unreasonable to expect ultimate collection and also when no significant uncertainty exists regarding the realization and amount of consideration.

However, if at the time of transfer substantial acts are yet to be performed under the contract, revenue is recognised on proportionate basis as the acts are progressively performed, i.e. on the percentage of completion basis.

Determination of revenues under the percentage of completion method necessarily involves making estimates by the Group. Some of the estimates amongst others are of a technical nature and these are related to the percentages of completion, costs till completion of the project / activity and the foreseeable losses if any. As the real estate projects necessarily extend beyond one year, revision in costs estimated during the course of the project on the basis of prevailing market conditions and variations in market dynamics are reflected in the accounting period in which the facts requiring the revision become known.

Revenue in respect of other income is recognized when no significant uncertainty as to its determination or realization exists.

Dividend income from investments is recognised when the shareholders' rights to receive payment have been established.

8) Transaction in foreign currencies:

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the exchange rates prevailing on the date of such transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities as at the Balance Sheet date are translated at the rates of exchange prevailing at the date of the Balance Sheet. Gains and losses arising on account of differences in foreign exchange rates on settlement/translation of monetary assets and liabilities are recognized in the profit and loss account. Non-monetary foreign currency items are carried at cost.

9) Retirement benefits:

The Company contributes to Employee's Provident Fund (a defined contribution plan) towards post employment benefits, which is administered by the respective Government authorities and the Company has no further obligation beyond making its contribution.

10) Accounting for taxes on income:

i) Provision for income tax is made on the basis of the estimated taxable income for the accounting year in accordance with the Income-Tax Act, 1961.

ii) The deferred tax for timing differences between the book profits and tax profits for the year is accounted for using the tax rates and laws that have been enacted or substantially enacted as of the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets arising from timing differences are recognised to the extent there is a virtual certainty that these would be realised in future and are reviewed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each balance sheet date.

11) Borrowing costs:

Borrowing costs attributable to the acquisition and construction of qualifying assets upto the date of such acquisition or construction are capitalised as part of the cost of respective assets. Other borrowing costs are charged to profit and loss account in the period in which they are incurred.

12) Impairment of assets:

The Group assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the management estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the profit and loss account. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciated historical cost.

13) Provisions and contingent liabilities:

The Group creates a provision when there is a present obligation as result of a past event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, requires an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.
